

食物事故報表 Food Incident Post

Heading	The US Food & Drug Administration (FDA) issued a notice regarding a recall of MMM Chocolate Chip Cookie Mix in the US by MADHAVA Natural Sweeteners due to undeclared milk
The incident	The US Food & Drug Administration (FDA) issued a notice regarding a recall of MMM Chocolate Chip Cookie Mix in the US by MADHAVA Natural Sweeteners due to undeclared milk. The recall applies to all units of their MMM Chocolate Chip Cookie Mix. A 13.8 oz. packages with the item UPC of 0 78314 25105 0. Details of product being recalled is listed in the FDA website.
Source	FDA website https://www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/ucm571348.htm
Position of CFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Information on product distribution outside US is not available from the FDA website. Acquisition of the products through online purchase or international travel cannot be excluded. Consumers who are allergic to milk should discard the products and not consume them. CFS will remain vigilant and monitor for any new development and take appropriate actions when necessary. Investigation by CFS is ongoing.
Additional information	NA

Posted on: 12 August 2017