(3) Rice Dumplings and Food Safety

It is a Chinese tradition to eat glutinous rice dumplings during the Dragon Boat Festival on the 5th day of the fifth month of the Lunar Calendar. In the old days, people used to make glutinous rice dumplings themselves to celebrate the festival. However, the busy city life drives many people to purchase ready-made ones from restaurants, food shops or supermarkets.

Please visit our webpage to view more safety tips on purchasing, preparing, and consuming glutinous rice dumplings:

(4) Summer Times and Food Safety

From food safety control perspective, iced drinks have potential risks. If the iced drinks are contaminated by bacteria or viruses during the preparation, and then kept under improper conditions, the pathogens can multiply and cause food poisoning in consumers.
