

食物事故報表 Food Incident Post

Heading	The Food Standards Australia New Zealand (FSANZ) – Recall of My Little Pony and Avengers Giant Pops in Australia by Park Avenue Foods due to potential presence of metal.
About The incident	The FSANZ issued a notice regarding a recall of My Little Pony and Avengers Giant Pops in Australia by Park Avenue Foods due to potential presence of metal. Recalled Products: My Little Pony and Avengers Giant Pops 180g Best Before 01/07/2020 Details of the products being recalled are listed in the FSANZ website.
Source	The FSANZ website: http://www.foodstandards.gov.au/industry/foodrecalls/recalls/Pages/My-Little-Pony-and-Avengers-Giant-Pops-180g.aspx
Position of CFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Information on product distribution was listed in the recall notice of the FSANZ website. Preliminary investigation so far does not identify local sale of the affected product. CFS is contacting relevant authority for further information. Acquisition of the products through online purchase or international travel cannot be excluded. Consumers should discard the products and not consume them. CFS will remain vigilant and monitor for any new development and take appropriate actions when necessary. Investigation by CFS is ongoing.
Additional information	NA

Posted on: 29 October 2018