

食物事故報表 Food Incident Post

Heading	The Netherlands authority – Withdrawal of food products produced by the Esro Vlees BV after 1-1-2022 that are not industrially heat treated in an approved establishment due to unknown microbiological status.
The incident	The Netherlands authority provided information, through the Rapid Alert System for Food and Feed (RASFF) of the European Union, regarding the withdrawal of food products produced by the Esro Vlees BV after 1-1-2022 that are not industrially heat treated in an approved establishment due to unknown microbiological status. According to the provided information, all food products for human consumption produced by Esro Vlees BV after 1-1-2022 have unknown microbiological status. Products that do not receive a heat treatment by an approved operator intended to eliminate all relevant microbiological risks, are to be considered unsafe and withdrawn.
Source of information	Rapid Alert System for Food and Feed (RASFF) of the European Union
Position of CFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • According to the record, there was no importation of beef from the Esro Vlees BV since 2022 until now. • The Centre for Food Safety (CFS) is contacting the relevant authority for further information. • Acquisition of the product through online purchase or international travel cannot be excluded. • Consumers should discard the product and not consume it. • CFS will remain vigilant and monitor for any new development and take appropriate actions when necessary. • Investigation by CFS is ongoing.
Additional information	NA

Posted on: 12 May 2026